For Immediate Release:

EIU DANCERS TO PERFORM SPECIAL PRESENTATION IN HONOR OF WOMEN

CHARLESTON –The Eastern Illinois University Dancers will perform a special presentation Monday, March 26, in commemoration of Women's History and Awareness Month 2001.

"Women in Dance" will begin at 6 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom of the University Union.

Admission is free and open to the public.

According to Jeanna McFarland, one of the group's faculty co-directors, the performance will feature some of the dances from the group's spring concert.

Eastern Illinois University emphasizes distinguished teaching in the liberal arts, sciences and selected professions. A traditional, residential state university of recognized quality, Eastern enrolls more than 10,000 students in undergraduate and graduate programs. The university, located in Charleston, also serves the region through a variety of non-credit and off-site degree programs, as well as cultural and recreational opportunities. Eastern's pursuit of excellence attracts well-qualified students of an increasingly diverse population and a teaching faculty active in research and public service who utilize the latest technology.
